IT IS NOW SAID

That it is again "drummer season."

That the woods are full of them.

That so is Waimea.

That Sid Spitzer is among them.

That some one should know that there is no private phone between Lihue and Waimea.

That people who rubber at the phone, sooner or later get their deserts.

That all the rubber necks are known by the "hello girls."

That to say to your friend, "I happened to go to the phone etc." is too old a chestnut to crack.

That Willie Stewart will soon move into his new bungalow.

That Carpenter Haynes will build a new church in Hanalei in the near future.

That it will be the finest church on the island.

That the Hanalei people deserve it.

That School Supervisor Brodie is a hustler.

That he is getting the schools graded as they should be.

That his numerous devices are proving a great help to the teachers.

That he is soon to organize a Teachers' Association for Kauai teachers.

That all the teachers would heartily support such a move.

That when it comes to first-class teaching material, Kauai takes a prominent position in the front rank.

That many poets developed during the Lihue Store contest.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the young man said "never again."

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That it is as easy to be a poet as it is to be a goat.

That some remarkable poems were received by Manager Rohrig.

That THE GARDEN ISLAND may be asked to put them on the market in book form.

That if it does, all copyrights will be reserved.

That an innocent automobile will likely figure in a mild sensation in the sweet bye and bye.

That a dainty little maid lost a dainty little slipper at the Makaweli dance.

That her Willie is making a still hunt for it.

That he would know it on sight.

That if he finds it his name will be "Slipperino."

That if he doesn't, 'twill be Dennis.

That Soccer enthusiasm is on the wane.

That these cold nights are a characteristic of Kauai's famous climate.

That Waimea is dry, dry, dry.

That it is to wonder why, why, why.

That there is little or no excuse for the man who claims to have made a mistake in the girl, even tho' it was twilight.

That his young lady found more congenial company.

That the young man said "never again."

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the public would like to see fair play in the teachers' salary affair.

That the people have a right to know how the Department of Public Instruction runs its affairs.

That they will learn this through the columns of THE GARDEN ISLAND.

That there must be some reason for the presence of so many drummers in Waimea.

That these popular "knights of the grip" have reasons for everything they do.

That such reasons are not always clear to the average layman.

That its a reasonable guess to say that they travel in squads for protection.

That it is needless precaution on their part, as their reputation renders them perfectly harmless.

That everybody likes "the drummer boys."

That they are always welcome to the best that Kauai can give them.

That band concerts are highly appreciated.

That Sousa's latest is "Kiss me, my Honey, Kiss me."

That it took the audience by storm.

That a certain man grew too personal in the interpretation of the selection and as a consequence, has lost considerable interest in it.

That it don't pay to get gay, with the band wagon unless you can toot the drum or beat a horn.

That this young man, unfortunately can do neither—for awhile at least.

LOCAL and PERSONAL

H. Buscher was an arrival the Kinan last Wednesday from Honolulu.

Miss Waterhouse came from Honolulu, last Wednesday and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Isenberry.

P. L. Horne, principal of the Kamehameha schools, was a passenger on the Kinan last Wednesday morning from Honolulu.

Supervising Principal H. H. Brodie, has asked the teachers of Kauai to make outlines of their schools, allowing them to include their own ideas with a view of getting a closer insight to what is being done by the individual teacher.

In other words, he wishes the teacher to retain as much of her individuality while yet conforming with the general plan.

The Lihue Store has purchased a beautiful pair of draft animals for use in its delivery service. They are perfect in build and the admiration of every one who sees them.

They were sent over from Honolulu by Hon. Paul Isenberg, and are evidence of this well-known horseman's judgment of horse flesh.

They were landed at Port Allen Friday and brought overland.

On Saturday they were tried out and proved highly satisfactory.
